

THE RICHMOND DISPATCH.
BY THE DISPATCH COMPANY.

The DAILY DISPATCH is delivered to subscribers at the rate of $1.00 per week, in advance, and $1.50 per month, in advance. The WEEKLY DISPATCH is delivered to subscribers at the rate of $1.00 per week, in advance, and $1.50 per month, in advance. The DISPATCH is published every day, except on Sundays and public holidays. The price of the paper is $1.00 per week, in advance, and $1.50 per month, in advance. The DISPATCH is published every day, except on Sundays and public holidays. The price of the paper is $1.00 per week, in advance, and $1.50 per month, in advance.

Advertisements are accepted for insertion at the rate of $1.00 per line, in advance, and $1.50 per month, in advance. The DISPATCH is published every day, except on Sundays and public holidays. The price of the paper is $1.00 per week, in advance, and $1.50 per month, in advance.

TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1886.

The Rights of Jurisdiction.
Colonel F. G. RUFFIN recently issued a pamphlet in which he discussed at some length the right of a judge in a Federal court to be the judge of the law, and to exercise that right so as to compel the jury to bring in a verdict expressing the judge's opinion rather than their own. Judge BOND, for instance, recently made up a jury of men before taking their seats that they were willing to render a true verdict according to the evidence "in obedience to the instructions of the Court as to the law applicable to the case." It is not necessary to say that a jury thus made up rendered just such a verdict as the Court desired them to render. Here is one of Judge BOND's questions as reported in our own paper of April 9th, asked of course by the bondholders' lawyer:

"Would you be willing as a jurymen in such a case to find your verdict upon the facts proved in accordance with such instructions, without fear, favor, or affection?"

It goes without saying that a jurymen who has answered under oath that he is willing to find a verdict in accordance with the judge's instructions finds not his own but the judge's verdict.

However, we did not set out to argue the case, but to show that Colonel RUFFIN has good reasons. The Nation has since his pamphlet was published reviewed a law-book, written by a lawyer of Baltimore, who desires to have the judges in Maryland clothed with the power which Judge BOND claims. It is thus brought to light by an opponent of the doctrine that ever since 1851 the Constitution of Maryland, Judge BOND's own State, has contained the following provision:

"In the trial of all criminal cases the jury shall be the judges of law as well as fact."

In 1858, and again later, the Maryland Court of Appeals has held that that provision was merely declaratory of the preexisting law—that is, the common law of England, the law of Judge BOND's court.

The Nation clinches its argument by quoting from Justice GRAY, of the United States Supreme Court, "who declares for the common-law right of the jury to pass upon the law," who "appears to have ranged over all the cases," and makes "a profusion of quotations," says:

"It is worthy of notice how the history of this question after the English Revolution of 1688 repeated itself in America nearly a century later. The great constitutional period—Somerset and Holt, Adams, Jay, Wilson, Jredell, Chase, Marshall, Hamilton, Parsons, and Kent—with one voice maintained the right of the jury upon the general issue of the law as well as the fact."

There is of course but one answer to all this, and that is to claim that suits for vindictive or primitive or exemplary damages, such as that of FORD vs. TAYLOR, are not criminal cases. But all the same TAYLOR was punished as a criminal by being made to pay $250, though "fifty-three dollars was really all the damages FORD sustained," as is boastfully claimed by the foreign bondholders' pamphlet.

PROHIBITION IN MAINE.—During the local-option campaign in Richmond there was a general desire upon the part of both the "Dry" and the "Wet" men to know how successful prohibition had been in Maine, where it had been tried for many years. Conflicting statements were published on the subject. We think, however, that we now have a statement that can be relied upon, since it comes from the Prohibitionists themselves and is against their side. The State Convention of the Prohibition party in Maine, which was recently in session, adopted a platform containing the following charge against both the Republican and the Democratic parties in that State:

"In Portland, Bangor, Biddeford, Lewiston, Bath, Augusta, Hallowell, and other cities and towns of the State, so far from the impartial enforcement of the law being adhered to in principle, the law is enforced or not at the discretion of the officer or party in power."

The impressions of thousands of candid observers in every part of the State, the records of our courts, the deposits in the savings banks of Maine as compared with other States, the

HUSBAND AND WIFE.
DECISION OF THE VIRGINIA SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.

The case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife—Wife as a Witness.

The following is an abstract of the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals in the case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife. The question arising and decided in the above case was that the competency of a married woman to testify in a suit for damages for a tort committed against her, or in other words, whether the rule of the common law on this point had been changed by what is commonly known as the married woman's law. The following is an abstract of the opinion as read by Judge Lacy:

We return thanks to the Society of Tammany or Columbian Order of the city of New York for an invitation to join with that Society in its ninety-eighth celebration of the 4th of July, the birthday of the republic.

Also to the authorities of the city of Albany, N. Y., for an invitation to be present at the public celebration of the two-hundredth anniversary of the granting of the city charter.

We are indebted to Hon. J. R. TUCKER and Hon. J. B. GEORGE for public documents. We will add that it is a real treat to read the arguments of these two gentlemen, or either of them, upon legal and constitutional questions. We should like to see both of them upon the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Philadelphia Times says: "The laboring-men of this country pay the millions of dollars which the damages are voting for unwarranted pensions." Yes; and the laboring-men in the South pay a large part of these millions, though their children are suffering under the educational facilities the passage of the BLAIR bill would afford.

E. W. BEDINGER, Esq., lately of West Virginia, has become the editor of the Roanoke Leader. Mr. BEDINGER has an established reputation in West Virginia as a fluent and able writer.

We have received The Educational Journal of Virginia for June. W. F. FOX, editor, Richmond.

BRIEF COMMENT.

"It is announced that JOHN L. SULLIVAN has stopped drinking." Is he dead?

If Judge FULLERTON wishes the Confederate debt paid, why does he not pay it himself?

"Mr. BRECHER does not expect to return before October." This country can stand it if England can.

"Private DALZIELL has turned himself loose again in the newspapers of Ohio." Will Ohio never end?

"JAY GOULD expects his Atlantic to well, she will if there is any way of taking a short-cut in the race."

A contemporary says: "If Congress wants to go fishing, let it go." Our contemporary forgets that the idea that fish makes good brain food has been exploded.

"The potato-bug, the chinch-bug, and the flower-bug are all in active operation this summer, but the humbug eclipses them all." Yes; we notice that LOGAN is enjoying a little notoriety just at present.

New Books.
The Rear Guard of the Revolution. By EDMUND KIRKE. New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Won by Waiting. A Novel. By EDNA LYALL, author of "Donovan." New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Living or Dead. A Novel. By HUGH CONWAY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Whom God Hath Joined. A Novel. By ELIZABETH GILBERT MARTIN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Beaton's Bargain. A Novel. By Mrs. ALEXANDER, author of "The Woe of a Woman." New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Mayor of Castledale. A Novel. By THOMAS HARDY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. No Saint. A Study. By ADELIN SHERMAN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.
DECISION OF THE VIRGINIA SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.

The case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife—Wife as a Witness.

The following is an abstract of the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals in the case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife. The question arising and decided in the above case was that the competency of a married woman to testify in a suit for damages for a tort committed against her, or in other words, whether the rule of the common law on this point had been changed by what is commonly known as the married woman's law. The following is an abstract of the opinion as read by Judge Lacy:

We return thanks to the Society of Tammany or Columbian Order of the city of New York for an invitation to join with that Society in its ninety-eighth celebration of the 4th of July, the birthday of the republic.

Also to the authorities of the city of Albany, N. Y., for an invitation to be present at the public celebration of the two-hundredth anniversary of the granting of the city charter.

We are indebted to Hon. J. R. TUCKER and Hon. J. B. GEORGE for public documents. We will add that it is a real treat to read the arguments of these two gentlemen, or either of them, upon legal and constitutional questions. We should like to see both of them upon the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Philadelphia Times says: "The laboring-men of this country pay the millions of dollars which the damages are voting for unwarranted pensions." Yes; and the laboring-men in the South pay a large part of these millions, though their children are suffering under the educational facilities the passage of the BLAIR bill would afford.

E. W. BEDINGER, Esq., lately of West Virginia, has become the editor of the Roanoke Leader. Mr. BEDINGER has an established reputation in West Virginia as a fluent and able writer.

We have received The Educational Journal of Virginia for June. W. F. FOX, editor, Richmond.

BRIEF COMMENT.

"It is announced that JOHN L. SULLIVAN has stopped drinking." Is he dead?

If Judge FULLERTON wishes the Confederate debt paid, why does he not pay it himself?

"Mr. BRECHER does not expect to return before October." This country can stand it if England can.

"Private DALZIELL has turned himself loose again in the newspapers of Ohio." Will Ohio never end?

"JAY GOULD expects his Atlantic to well, she will if there is any way of taking a short-cut in the race."

A contemporary says: "If Congress wants to go fishing, let it go." Our contemporary forgets that the idea that fish makes good brain food has been exploded.

"The potato-bug, the chinch-bug, and the flower-bug are all in active operation this summer, but the humbug eclipses them all." Yes; we notice that LOGAN is enjoying a little notoriety just at present.

New Books.
The Rear Guard of the Revolution. By EDMUND KIRKE. New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Won by Waiting. A Novel. By EDNA LYALL, author of "Donovan." New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Living or Dead. A Novel. By HUGH CONWAY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Whom God Hath Joined. A Novel. By ELIZABETH GILBERT MARTIN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Beaton's Bargain. A Novel. By Mrs. ALEXANDER, author of "The Woe of a Woman." New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Mayor of Castledale. A Novel. By THOMAS HARDY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. No Saint. A Study. By ADELIN SHERMAN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.
DECISION OF THE VIRGINIA SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.

The case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife—Wife as a Witness.

The following is an abstract of the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals in the case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife. The question arising and decided in the above case was that the competency of a married woman to testify in a suit for damages for a tort committed against her, or in other words, whether the rule of the common law on this point had been changed by what is commonly known as the married woman's law. The following is an abstract of the opinion as read by Judge Lacy:

We return thanks to the Society of Tammany or Columbian Order of the city of New York for an invitation to join with that Society in its ninety-eighth celebration of the 4th of July, the birthday of the republic.

Also to the authorities of the city of Albany, N. Y., for an invitation to be present at the public celebration of the two-hundredth anniversary of the granting of the city charter.

We are indebted to Hon. J. R. TUCKER and Hon. J. B. GEORGE for public documents. We will add that it is a real treat to read the arguments of these two gentlemen, or either of them, upon legal and constitutional questions. We should like to see both of them upon the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Philadelphia Times says: "The laboring-men of this country pay the millions of dollars which the damages are voting for unwarranted pensions." Yes; and the laboring-men in the South pay a large part of these millions, though their children are suffering under the educational facilities the passage of the BLAIR bill would afford.

E. W. BEDINGER, Esq., lately of West Virginia, has become the editor of the Roanoke Leader. Mr. BEDINGER has an established reputation in West Virginia as a fluent and able writer.

We have received The Educational Journal of Virginia for June. W. F. FOX, editor, Richmond.

BRIEF COMMENT.

"It is announced that JOHN L. SULLIVAN has stopped drinking." Is he dead?

If Judge FULLERTON wishes the Confederate debt paid, why does he not pay it himself?

"Mr. BRECHER does not expect to return before October." This country can stand it if England can.

"Private DALZIELL has turned himself loose again in the newspapers of Ohio." Will Ohio never end?

"JAY GOULD expects his Atlantic to well, she will if there is any way of taking a short-cut in the race."

A contemporary says: "If Congress wants to go fishing, let it go." Our contemporary forgets that the idea that fish makes good brain food has been exploded.

"The potato-bug, the chinch-bug, and the flower-bug are all in active operation this summer, but the humbug eclipses them all." Yes; we notice that LOGAN is enjoying a little notoriety just at present.

New Books.
The Rear Guard of the Revolution. By EDMUND KIRKE. New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Won by Waiting. A Novel. By EDNA LYALL, author of "Donovan." New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Living or Dead. A Novel. By HUGH CONWAY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Whom God Hath Joined. A Novel. By ELIZABETH GILBERT MARTIN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Beaton's Bargain. A Novel. By Mrs. ALEXANDER, author of "The Woe of a Woman." New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Mayor of Castledale. A Novel. By THOMAS HARDY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. No Saint. A Study. By ADELIN SHERMAN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.
DECISION OF THE VIRGINIA SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.

The case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife—Wife as a Witness.

The following is an abstract of the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals in the case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife. The question arising and decided in the above case was that the competency of a married woman to testify in a suit for damages for a tort committed against her, or in other words, whether the rule of the common law on this point had been changed by what is commonly known as the married woman's law. The following is an abstract of the opinion as read by Judge Lacy:

We return thanks to the Society of Tammany or Columbian Order of the city of New York for an invitation to join with that Society in its ninety-eighth celebration of the 4th of July, the birthday of the republic.

Also to the authorities of the city of Albany, N. Y., for an invitation to be present at the public celebration of the two-hundredth anniversary of the granting of the city charter.

We are indebted to Hon. J. R. TUCKER and Hon. J. B. GEORGE for public documents. We will add that it is a real treat to read the arguments of these two gentlemen, or either of them, upon legal and constitutional questions. We should like to see both of them upon the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Philadelphia Times says: "The laboring-men of this country pay the millions of dollars which the damages are voting for unwarranted pensions." Yes; and the laboring-men in the South pay a large part of these millions, though their children are suffering under the educational facilities the passage of the BLAIR bill would afford.

E. W. BEDINGER, Esq., lately of West Virginia, has become the editor of the Roanoke Leader. Mr. BEDINGER has an established reputation in West Virginia as a fluent and able writer.

We have received The Educational Journal of Virginia for June. W. F. FOX, editor, Richmond.

BRIEF COMMENT.

"It is announced that JOHN L. SULLIVAN has stopped drinking." Is he dead?

If Judge FULLERTON wishes the Confederate debt paid, why does he not pay it himself?

"Mr. BRECHER does not expect to return before October." This country can stand it if England can.

"Private DALZIELL has turned himself loose again in the newspapers of Ohio." Will Ohio never end?

"JAY GOULD expects his Atlantic to well, she will if there is any way of taking a short-cut in the race."

A contemporary says: "If Congress wants to go fishing, let it go." Our contemporary forgets that the idea that fish makes good brain food has been exploded.

"The potato-bug, the chinch-bug, and the flower-bug are all in active operation this summer, but the humbug eclipses them all." Yes; we notice that LOGAN is enjoying a little notoriety just at present.

New Books.
The Rear Guard of the Revolution. By EDMUND KIRKE. New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Won by Waiting. A Novel. By EDNA LYALL, author of "Donovan." New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Living or Dead. A Novel. By HUGH CONWAY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Whom God Hath Joined. A Novel. By ELIZABETH GILBERT MARTIN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Beaton's Bargain. A Novel. By Mrs. ALEXANDER, author of "The Woe of a Woman." New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Mayor of Castledale. A Novel. By THOMAS HARDY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. No Saint. A Study. By ADELIN SHERMAN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.
DECISION OF THE VIRGINIA SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.

The case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife—Wife as a Witness.

The following is an abstract of the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals in the case of the Norfolk and Western Railroad against Prindle and Wife. The question arising and decided in the above case was that the competency of a married woman to testify in a suit for damages for a tort committed against her, or in other words, whether the rule of the common law on this point had been changed by what is commonly known as the married woman's law. The following is an abstract of the opinion as read by Judge Lacy:

We return thanks to the Society of Tammany or Columbian Order of the city of New York for an invitation to join with that Society in its ninety-eighth celebration of the 4th of July, the birthday of the republic.

Also to the authorities of the city of Albany, N. Y., for an invitation to be present at the public celebration of the two-hundredth anniversary of the granting of the city charter.

We are indebted to Hon. J. R. TUCKER and Hon. J. B. GEORGE for public documents. We will add that it is a real treat to read the arguments of these two gentlemen, or either of them, upon legal and constitutional questions. We should like to see both of them upon the bench of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Philadelphia Times says: "The laboring-men of this country pay the millions of dollars which the damages are voting for unwarranted pensions." Yes; and the laboring-men in the South pay a large part of these millions, though their children are suffering under the educational facilities the passage of the BLAIR bill would afford.

E. W. BEDINGER, Esq., lately of West Virginia, has become the editor of the Roanoke Leader. Mr. BEDINGER has an established reputation in West Virginia as a fluent and able writer.

We have received The Educational Journal of Virginia for June. W. F. FOX, editor, Richmond.

BRIEF COMMENT.

"It is announced that JOHN L. SULLIVAN has stopped drinking." Is he dead?

If Judge FULLERTON wishes the Confederate debt paid, why does he not pay it himself?

"Mr. BRECHER does not expect to return before October." This country can stand it if England can.

"Private DALZIELL has turned himself loose again in the newspapers of Ohio." Will Ohio never end?

"JAY GOULD expects his Atlantic to well, she will if there is any way of taking a short-cut in the race."

A contemporary says: "If Congress wants to go fishing, let it go." Our contemporary forgets that the idea that fish makes good brain food has been exploded.

"The potato-bug, the chinch-bug, and the flower-bug are all in active operation this summer, but the humbug eclipses them all." Yes; we notice that LOGAN is enjoying a little notoriety just at present.

New Books.
The Rear Guard of the Revolution. By EDMUND KIRKE. New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Won by Waiting. A Novel. By EDNA LYALL, author of "Donovan." New York: D. APPLETON & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Living or Dead. A Novel. By HUGH CONWAY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Whom God Hath Joined. A Novel. By ELIZABETH GILBERT MARTIN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. Beaton's Bargain. A Novel. By Mrs. ALEXANDER, author of "The Woe of a Woman." New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Mayor of Castledale. A Novel. By THOMAS HARDY. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. No Saint. A Study. By ADELIN SHERMAN. New York: HENRY HOLT & CO.

For sale by WEST, JOHNSTON & CO. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. The Lady of the Lake. By Sir WALTER SCOTT. New York: CASSELL & CO.

For sale by J. W. RANDOLPH & ENGLISH. Selections from the Table-Talk of Martin Luther. Translated by Captain HENRY BELL. New York: CASSELL & CO.